Mary K. Brimer, CLU, ChFC

Mary Brimer is a Producing General Agent, Broker and the President of Ginger Green Financial, LLC. She is a Registered Representative and Financial Planner of O.N. Equity Sales Co. She consults regularly with clients and prospects on a variety of topics to help create financial strategies and assurance. Mary's clientele includes but is not limited to Legal, Medical, and Construction Professionals.

Mary has more than a decade of advisory experience in economic extremes and stock market volatility. Mary believes that $1 invested in the right place can do the work of $4 invested in the wrong place. Her passion is showing clients how to pay taxes on their income just once, and teach them how to accumulate wealth safely and efficiently.

To better serve her clients interests in June of 2010 Mary left executive management and went into private practice. Her national industry recognition includes membership with the Million Dollar Round Table and MassMutual's Sales Manager Summit, Sales Manager of the Year, GAMA Bronze Medal winner and Career Builder Award. She is called on regularly to speak at National Insurance Industry Conventions. She has been a Million Dollar Round Table Qualifier for personal production year over year. Prior to her current position, she was the Agency VP of Sales at MassMutual, and was a Financial Advisor and Recruiter for John Hancock Financial Network. She entered the industry with New York Life Insurance Co.

Mary attended the University of Maryland, University College and The American College of Financial Services where she earned Chartered Life Underwriter and Chartered Financial Consultant. She earned and holds the following securities licenses: Series 6, 7, 24, 53, 63, and 65. She holds insurance licenses for Life, Health, Disability, Property and Casualty insurance sales. In her spare time she enjoys cooking and hosting dinner parties with clients and friends.
